POLAR APPOINTED AS HUGE SYSTEMS WESTERN EUROPEAN DISTRIBUTOR

London, 18th February 2005, Polar Graphics today announced that they have expanded their existing agreement with Huge Systems, Inc. – A Ciprico Company, a leading storage solutions provider for the content creation, broadcast and delivery markets, to become their Western European distributor of Huge Systems products.

Polar has been Huge Systems' exclusive distributor for UK and Ireland since early 2004 and the expanded agreement adds a further seven countries to the territory they handle. Polar will now act as the exclusive distributor of Huge Systems products in Belgium, Finland, France, Ireland, Monaco, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden and United Kingdom.

"I am very excited about this agreement.", said Garry Davis, Technical Director Polar Graphics Ltd, "We have been handling products of this type for several years and during that time we have built up a great level of experience and knowledge of these products. This agreement enables us to offer dealers in these new countries reliable, high performance storage solutions with the benefits of high availability from our European stocks, and better support from European sales and technical support personnel."
